

Ron and Martha Ratzlaff

Ron and Martha are the Kenya Country Representatives for the Mennonite Central Committee (MCC). MCC is the relief and development arm and they do work "in the name of Christ" working with faith-based communities and other NGOs to help needy people in Kenya. MCC supports food security, water projects, seed banks, tree planting, sand dams, agriculture and livestock needs. MCC also supports peace efforts and bridge building across ethnic boundaries in addition to programs designed to prevent the spread of HIV and AIDS.

Kelsey Skene

Kelsey is working with YWAM in Australia studying, serving and ministering to youth. The Bible Core Course changed her understanding and love for the Lord so much that she is now teaching others to know Him too. Kelsey has been able to lead a team to Papua New Guinea working with local pastors to share the Good News. "I love being able to spend time in study and deepen my relationship with Him", says Kelsey.

Mission Workers

October 2011

 Due to security concerns in countries where these people will be or are serving, please be sensitive when writing and avoid words such as missionary, God, evangelism, Christian, Bible, etc.*

Also, please avoid using the name of their sending agency.

A reminder that designated financial support for any of our workers cannot be made payable or directed through Bethany Chapel. It must be sent directly to the sending agency with a separate note attached, indicating who the support is for.

Bethany Chapel Missions Workers — October 2011

Jorge and Gail Atencia

Cristofer & Daniela

Jorge and Gail serve in Colombia. Their prime ministry is the "Formation" of Bible Expositors on a variety of fronts in Latin America. The preaching "mini-schools" – where lay men and women as well as pastors receive training and mentoring over a three year cycle – continue to thrive and multiply in Colombia, Ecuador, Peru and Bolivia. Jorge's commitment to biblical preaching includes extensive collaboration all over Latin America through the global network of Langham Preaching (John Stott Ministries). This seeks to provide pastors with tools, mentoring and fellowship to sharpen and deepen the impact of the preaching. Ministry for Jorge and Gail includes involvement with the Funacion Universitaria Seminario Biblico de Colombia and the local church in Bogota: Iglesia Anglicana de la Vid.

Making disciples of Jesus Christ by inviting people to faith, growing them in worship and the Word, and moving them to serve.

Mick and Caroline Brown *

Peter, Katerina

Mick and Caroline are the leaders of about 80 foreign Christian workers who are located in eight cites around Turkey. Their role is to provide direction, encouragement, accountability and pastoral care for these ministry workers and to ensure good communication with other Christian groups. They are actively involved in their local church by helping with worship and summer youth camps.

Travis Lacey

Travis is working with a children's home called "O Projeto Lar Feliz" in the state of Sao Paulo, Brazil. Lar Feliz houses 75 children who have become wards of the state resulting from abuse, neglect, or abandonment. Under the direction of long term missionaries Paul and Jill VanOpstal, he is responsible for the afternoon and evening operations of the project, as well as to serve on a technical team responsible for the psychiatric and emotional health of the children. Travis has a heart to reveal the love and power of God, who can break cycles of brokenness in all lives, big and small.

Amy Ohler *

Amy's main role is to help co-ordinate a small discipleship training program for Turkish believers in Ankara. Amy also enjoys working part-time at Radio Shema, one of only two Christian radio stations in the country. She finds it a privilege to be a part of a small local fellowship and is involved with prayer and worship ministry. Evangelism is a regular and natural part of her everyday life living in a predominantly Muslim country.
